WIREFRAME (Mockup of elements – navigation is the most critical)
Student Name _____, Project: _____

Middle Column	Body (just add a rule / this is not a div)	DIV Rough Notes / calculations (about size, margins/ padding which is the foundation of positioning)
Mockup approximates the web site layout (Divs) (leave a bit of space between DIVs even if your actual layout margins / padding are 0 px. By hand or computer generated Shows Navigation Use color pencils to color block if you want Far Right Column Not usually part of wireframes, but I want you to record your calculations for each rule	Container Div	Body rules: text-align: center; padding 0 margin 0 Container Div Rules: text-align: left; margin: 0 auto; _____ Div Rules: _____ Div Rules: _____ Div Rules: _____ Div Rules:
